A note from the Garden Crew.

Because animals have been destroying our church garden tomatoes, we have installed an electric fence around the tomato bed.

Please be careful around it and keep children away from it.

UNION HILL CHURCH of CHRIST

August 9th, 2026

Welcome to Union Hill! We hope during your time with us you grow deeper in your love for God and for your brothers and sisters in Christ.

Today, I'd like to offer a shoutout to Angela Lorette and Kim Cochran. These two direct our Quilting Ministry.

This special service creates comforting gifts. They primarily provide blankets for newborns at UH. This is a wonderful way to show love and support for our young families and to welcome their newcomers to the UH family. Thank you, Angela, Kim, and all the sewers who bless our families.

Amy, the boys, and I are worshiping this morning in Honduras. We're here visiting this week with our future daughter-in-law and her family. They live in San Pedro Sula. I realize my absence puts a great burden on many at UH, so I want to express my sincere thanks to you and the leaders for allowing me to be away. We've truly valued the recent travels but look forward to being home with you and back to our routine. I have no intent of significant travel till next year! ¡Qué Dios te bendiga!

Grace and peace, Steve
