UNION HILL CHURCH of CHRIST

December 1st, 2024

Good morning and welcome to Union Hill! I hope this Thanksgiving filled your heart with loving memories and your stomach with delicious food. Amy, our sons, and I traveled to Virginia to be with our oldest son in school there. As many of you know, gathering the family together becomes much more challenging with time. Such struggles though also serve as a gift. They force us to better value such experiences and not take them for granted. Too often I have failed to rightly value my Union Hill church. Sadly, I often hear Christians lament the loss of a strong body of believers that they consider family. The Lord has richly blessed us at UH, so "let us consider how to spur one another on to love and good work" - Heb 10:24.

Join us at 5pm as we continue our series on Elijah.

Grace and peace, Steve
