UNION HILL CHURCH of CHRIST

March 16th 2025

In August 2005, the counseling ministry began when a young couple walked into the office at the old Union Hill warehouse seeking support for their marriage. To their credit, that husband and wife remain married today.

The phrase "easier said than done" can be applied to many things in life. Whether it's a battle to hold on to a marriage, or a war experienced inside oneself, life sometimes does a good job of putting us in our place. During these times, it is especially important to remember to take care of ourselves as Jesus and his apostles did in Mark 6:31 "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

Rest for our stressed out souls is sometimes more easily received while spending time alone. At other times, being in the company of a brother or sister is exactly what we need. It's important for all of us to find someone to rely on when our hearts feel down and overwhelmed. Whether it is a mentor, family member, friend or counselor, the chance to lay our burdens down goes a long way toward helping us persevere during moments of trial.

In the almost twenty years since the counseling ministry began, nearly 1,000 people have sought guidance and support at Union Hill. Our congregation is fortunate to have additional members providing their support as we look for opportunities to grow this ministry. In addition to myself, Linda Carlson, LMFT and Caleb Eggleston, PLPC NCC are available to accept clients. If you or anyone you know can benefit from the support of a Christian counselor, feel free to reach out to one of us. And may we all work together as one body to "consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds" (Hebrews 10:24).
