UNION HILL CHURCH of CHRIST

March 30th, 2025

Good morning and welcome to Union Hill! Last Sunday we celebrated the addition of Jesse & Shelby Mendez and kids: Eli, Rory, & Isaac. They expressed their desire to serve with us. Jesse is a nurse while Shelby homeschools the kids. We thankful to have this wonderful family here with us.

We recently said goodbye to Gene Scroggins, one of our original Elders. Previously, he served as an overseer at the Scenic & Weaver and then Sunset churches—around 45 years in all! Robert Kerley, also a founding Elder, summed up Gene well with the following story:

“During one particularly challenging time in Union Hill’s history, the elders had spent many weeks discussing whether or not we should take on a new ministry that would require significant resources and a big commitment from the membership. There were compelling arguments and strong feelings both for and against the proposal, and Gene, as usual, had done much more listening than talking throughout our deliberations. When the time came to make a final decision, I asked Gene to share his opinion with us. His response was simply “Well, the Lord’s been with us this far.” In that simple statement Gene changed the entire nature of the discussion by reminding us of the true source of our confidence and ability.”

Grace and peace, Steve
