Welcome to Union Hill! We're glad you're with us. It's often said that deaths seem to follow numerical patterns. I suspect there're various reasons we expect fatalities to conclude, for example, after three. On one hand, they're more prominent when they come in clusters. But also, seeing patterns perhaps gives us some type of comfort that we'll soon see relief from the grieving. It seems we've had a number of deaths that have impacted our family. From a 10 year whose young life ended far too short to an 81 and 86 year old who lived long, fruitful lives. As I write this one of our original Elders, Gene Scroggins, is in his final moments of his life on earth. Of course, we all have such an appointment, but we do not fear:

1 Cor 15:54f When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." ⁵⁵ "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?"

This week Amy, Josiah, and I will be on a school trip. At such times I'm reminded of the depth and gifts and talent we have here at Union Hill. For the next two Sundays, Caleb Eggleston will share the sermon. I also appreciate the countless others who will pick up the slack in my departure.

Grace and Peace, Steve
