November 26th, 2023

Good morning and welcome to Union Hill! I hope everyone spent the holiday loving and being loved by those you hold dear.

When it comes to life the critical thing is whether you take things for granted or take them with gratitude.

G.K. CHESTERSON

In our passage this morning, Christ calls us to rightly value important things—not taking them for granted. The holiday season is a joyful time, but for many it's a painful reminder of those loved ones no longer with us. Let's pause and consider what we wished we had said, and then direct such words to those who may still hear them.

Bible classes and small group gatherings are excellent opportunities for community. I hope you'll consider joining one. We'll have our acts study at 5pm.

Grace and peace, Steve
